

ABOUT B-J MATHER

WRLA has engaged B-J Mather, a seasoned leader in high-performance management, to conduct this pivotal review.

Mather brings over two decades of experience, including roles as General Manager of High Performance for Fiji Rugby Union and Director of High Performance at the NSW Institute of Sport.

He has also held senior positions with New South Wales Rugby League (NSWRL) and the Rugby Football League (RFL) in the UK, overseeing talent pathways, academy environments, and operational planning for major competitions.
